New Breast Screening Dashboard & Webinar Wednesday 21 May 13:00–14:00 Register here

RM Partners and the NWL ICS Business Intelligence Team have developed a new Breast Screening Dashboard:

- 3 years screening coverage, GP-registered women aged 50–71, North West London
- Data viewable at ICS, borough, PCN and practice level, inc. variation by demographics, co-morbidities and deprivation.

Join us for a webinar including health promotion updates from Dr Mansi Tara, service change updates from Steven Davies, and a live dashboard demonstration from Dr Bushra Khawaja. Open to GPs, practice nurses, practice managers, primary care and ICB staff.

New mental health support service for Hammersmith and Fulham

Open 7 days a week, including weekends and bank holidays, from 2:00pm-10:00pm Dawes Road Hub, SW6 7EN

Hestia Hammersmith & Fulham Safe Space is a non-clinical mental health support service for residents of Hammersmith and Fulham aged 18+ who may be struggling to cope with their mental health and wellbeing.

The service provides a safe, inclusive space where individuals can access emotional support, reduce immediate distress, and receive practical signposting. We accept both professional referrals and direct drop-ins. The service is easily accessible for residents who may need evening support. Completed referral forms can be sent directly to HF.SafeSpace@hestia.org, and our team will contact the individual directly to arrange support.

Residents are also welcome to attend the service in person during opening hours without an appointment, in person or by calling us on: 02038692792.

Hestia are keen to attend GP meetings to discuss their service more – please get in touch.

Shapes Toolkit comes to H&F in person!

From engagement to partnership with people and communities

CO-DESIGN AND CO-PRODUCTION IN GENERAL PRACTICE FOR NW LONDON

Join our upcoming webinar on how to build effective partnerships with patients, carers and communities.

This webinar is the first in a series of learning opportunities that will build confidence by focusing on real world application to enable general practice to co-design services for better outcomes and engagement.

The webinar will cover:

- What do we mean by co-design and co-production?
- Key differences and when each approach is appropriate
- Why this matters in general practice and neighbourhood working
- Practical examples and impact drawn from local experience
- Common myths and barriers
- Overview of the follow-on workshop series

The webinar and follow-on series will be delivered by Jessie Cunnett.

Jessie has 30 years' experience at senior levels in health and care having worked extensively in patient and staff engagement, service transformation and improvement, qualitative and deliberative research and evaluation and leadership education. Recently leading the community engagement strand for the NHS 10 year plan. She is a specialist in bridging the gap between health and care systems and the people they are set up to serve. Jessie is Assistant Professor in Healthcare Leadership, Commissioning and Change Management at Brighton and Sussex Medical School and a Trustee at National Voices the umbrella body for over 200 health and care charities.

Supervision Offer

FOR HEALTH & WELLBEING COACHES, LINK WORKERS, AND CARE COORDINATORS.

I'm Phoebe, a Health & Wellbeing Coach for hammersmith and Fulham Partnership, and I'm currently training to be a Supervisor for Health Coaches, Link Workers, and Care Coordinators. As part of my training, I am offering

- GROUP SUPERVISION PRACTICE SESSIONS ON TUESDAY AFTERNOONS
- ONE-TO-ONE PRACTICE SESSIONS ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS.

This will help me greatly in qualifying as a supervisor, but I also hope it will help provide you a safe and supportive space to reflect on your caseload, work, and how you're doing at the moment.

If you're interested, please email me at phoebe.williams4@nhs.net and we will find a beneficial time to meet over Teams.
