Developing People Strategies That Make a Difference

Helping people professionals move beyond day-to-day HR and make a greater impact on people, performance and organisational success.

People professionals play a critical role in helping organisations attract, develop and retain great people. But with changing workforce expectations, increasing organisational pressures and the growing importance of wellbeing and inclusion, the role of the modern people professional is becoming increasingly strategic.

In this practical and thought-provoking webinar, we'll explore how people professionals can strengthen their influence, use data and insight to make better decisions, and develop people solutions that support both employees and organisational performance.

Whether you're already working in HR or a people-focused role, or you're looking to take the next step in your career, this session will provide practical insights into becoming a more confident, credible and influential people professional.
